MSHSL partners with Baron Championship Rings

BROOKLYN CENTER, Minn. --- The Minnesota State High School League (MSHSL) announced today that Baron Championship Rings has joined the organization's team of corporate partners.

Baron Championship Rings will be the Official Championship Ring supplier of the 38-championship events the MSHSL sponsors. The Canadian-based company has produced rings for the 2016 NBA Champions Cleveland Cavaliers, the 2017 WNBA Champion Los Angeles Sparks, the University of Minnesota and hundreds of NCAA and State High School Champions across North America.

"We are thrilled to partner with Baron Championship Rings, said Lisa Lissimore, the associate director who oversees the MSHSL sponsorship marketing efforts. "Together with Baron, we will give tournament participants access to the time-honored tradition of a championship ring."

Baron is committed to providing the best championship rings to MSHSL state champions throughout the state of Minnesota. "Baron Championship Rings is extremely excited to be the official championship ring of the MSHSL", said Kevin Kloostra, manager of business development at Baron. "We believe that every ring as a story. To win a state championship is an honor and should be never be forgotten".
